Ancient Egyptian art

The Ancient Egyptians used art as a form of writing but also used art to depict activities of daily life, images of the afterlife, protective gods and their history.

What do you think the picture below means?

This picture was found in a tomb and represented the cycle of crops and the importance of farming. It also shows that Ancient Egyptians used animals and tools for farming.

Watch the following video for inspiration!!!

If historians found a picture from your life, what would it look like?

A large, empty rectangular box with a brown border, intended for a student to draw or write a response to the question above. The box is centered on the page and occupies most of the lower half of the document.
